

NICOR NCAP Terms of Use – Report content

The NICOR National Cardiac Audit Programme (NCAP) report(s) are published to support transparency, learning and service improvement. The content may be viewed, downloaded, and referenced for non-commercial purposes, provided that full and accurate attribution is given.

You may reproduce reasonable extracts of the report(s) where the material is not modified, the original context and explanatory information are preserved, and the source is clearly acknowledged.

Systematic or automated extraction of content from this website - including the use of bots, scripts, scraping tools, or similar technologies - is not permitted without prior written permission.

The use of automated text or data analysis techniques (including text and data mining) should not be undertaken without prior consent where this involves bulk extraction or the creation of derivative datasets.

The content must not be used in a way that is misleading or that misrepresents the methodology, findings, or context in which the information is presented.

For any enquiries, contact: nicor.auditenquiries@nhs.net.